"THE AMERICAN UNION COMMISSION."

We need hardly say to most of our readers, that the above is the title of a benevolent association, an Appeal from which will be found in the Clipper of today, and which, now that the war is at an end, takes the place of those other two great institutions, the "Christian" and "United States Sanitary Commissions," which have done such vast good in alleviating human misery amidst the horrors of the late conflict. Composed of men of the highest character and talent, and administered with untiring energy, if certain Corps or Divisions of our great armies have won for themselves and commanders immortal honors, for the manner in which they have conducted themselves in saving the Union, no just honors should be withheld from these other corps of Christian and humane gentlemen, who have fairly haunted every battle field in their brave and self-denying endeavors to alleviate pain and anguish wherever found, on whichever side of the contending armies it could be reached.

And theirs have been no holiday proceedings either. Whoever was privileged to look in upon the quarters of the Christian Commission at City Point, during the war, found these gentlemen lodged in the roughest and plainest manner consistent with health and comfort, their rude "bunks" being furnished only with the army blanket, whilst the fare on their tables was only that beef, bacon, bread and potatoes, such as was accessible to the rank and file of the army on every side. As well organized in their way, as the military themselves, not a skirmish could occur, not an exchange of prisoners take place, but that some of their large force of men and horses were on the spot, the inevitable "coffee wagon" being in requisition to soothe and support those needing its stores, whilst Christian consolation was added to the comforts of the desperately wounded soldier, or the returning and dying prisoner.

We say these were some of the prominent features which commanded the deepest respect of the casual visitor to the army who was privileged to come into contact with these noble bodies of Christian gentlemen; and now when we find that certain of these propose to continue their labors in a way more suited to the altered condition of things, that they propose to explore the regions made desolate by the war, to rescue from want and sorrow the myriads needing such aid and such consolation, whose heart at the bare announcement does not warm towards them, prompting for the occasion every encouragement and bidding them—God speed!

But in doing our part to encourage the good work, what can we do better than call the particular attention of the readers of the Clipper to the eloquent language in which their call for aid is couched! We quote:

"The desolation that reigns in the South at the present time almost baffles "description. It challenges our deepest "commiseration and magnanimity. Many "of the people are scattered and homeless; "their agriculture is broken up; many of "their homes, churches, and school houses "are in ashes; their towns and cities are "without trade; their mills and foundries, "their canals and railroads are destroyed; "the people are without employment or "the means of support; their children are "without the appliances of intellectual or "moral education, their widows and orphans are weeping beside the graves of "their dead, and thousands of their families are in exile. To meet this condition of things, and to assist the people "to start again upon the high road of "social and national prosperity, The American Union Commission has been organized. It is organized upon a national basis. Its object is to promote Industry, Education, Freedom, and Christian civilization."

Such, briefly stated, is the programme of this new organization so appropriately designed to succeed those which have done their work in stormier times, and are in process of disbandment. And with men identified with this who have made so noble a record for themselves in the past, is there a benevolent citizen who will not come up to their aid, should not all, indeed, as patriots, as well wishers of the country do all that is possible to make it a success, to cause it to reflect honor upon the State and the times in which we live?

We cannot refrain from adding another paragraph or two from the call referred to, and we should think there are few who can listen to it with indifference—

"Now that the question of one nation, "one constitution, and one destiny has "reached a finality, let us rise in the "majesty of a national charity, and help "reorganize the broken fragments of "society, and rebind them around the "national heart. This movement re"ceived the endorsement of our late "lamented President, and also receives "the cordial endorsement of President "Johnson, and must receive the approval "and co-operation of all minds of liberal "and comprehensive views. An explora"tion of the field reveals an appalling "state of things. The necessity of immediate and general action is imperious.—"Thousands of families, that had no "agency in bringing upon this section of "our country this state of things, are in "abject poverty and distress. Many of "them were in affluent circumstances be"fore the war. Let it not be said that "when Ireland and other foreign nations "were in distress, we came to their res"cue and that now we hide ourselves from "our own flesh. Charity and the common "dictates of humanity forbid it"

We have given the gist of this document, and it is for our citizens to do what they can to come to the rescue. We need hardly be told, in detail, what have been the terrible evils brought upon the Shenandoah Valley and kindred localities, by the conflicts and raids of which they have been made the theatre. All knew the destitution to exist, that there is an immediate requirement for everything that can be contributed. Let the "American Union Commission," then, be the almoners of the city and State, and all who give will feel that their donations will be applied in a manner to draw forth "blessings from them that are ready to perish."

☞ The flies have driven the United States Surveyor out of the woods of Shawano county, Wis. These insects are called lind flies, and they gather about the neck as soon as the sun warms them up out of the ground, and their bite is painful and poisonous, creating considerable sores, and causing the neck to swell. In their persistious effects they are classed by strangers as next to Wisconsin whisky.

FOR MORE THAN TWENTY YEARS MATHEWS' VENITIAN HAIR DYE has stood the test of trial, and is constantly increasing in public favor.

THE VENETIAN HAIR DYE is the best and cheapest made. Its price is only 75 cts. and each bottle contains double the quantity of dye to those usually sold for $1.

THIS HAIR DYE is manufactured by a peculiar process, which renders it infinitely superior to any dye in market. Being complete in one bottle, no preparation is required, which greatly simplifies the application.

IN USING THIS DYE you avoid that RUSTY, DEAD appearance by which dyed hair and whiskers are so readily recognized, when an inferior article has been used, as it produces a perfectly natural color of any shade that is desired, from a rich brown to a jetty, lustrious black, that will not smut, crock, or stain the clothing. Invest 75 cents, and you will be convinced. Sold by all Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

PILLS THAT ARE PERFECT.

There are many good pills in the world, we hope, for the sake of humanity, but the pills that are really "perfect," because they are aperient, tonic, laxative, stimulant, counter-irritant, subsolidic, and alterative at the same time, are Radway's Regulating Pills, sold everywhere, and for only 25 cents a box. With these rare pills in your house, you can do without purging by means of other pills or powders. You can do without salts, soldlitz, castor oil, citrate of magnesia, senna and manna, and so on. You want none of these. Radway's Regulating Pills are a substitute for the whole of them, and, what is better, may be taken with safety and comfort by the most delicate woman as well as the robust man. They are the only vegetable preparation existing which will answer in place of calomel, regulating the action of the liver, without making you a helpless victim to the use of mercury or blue pill. They open the bowels in a proper and wholesome manner, being composed of the extracts of suitable medicaments. They do not purge violently, like the drastic pills of aloes or Croton or Harlem Oil, or cintercum, by irritating the coats of the bowels, but they are the "perfect" pill of the age, and when taken keep all the secretions in a healthy condition, compel all the organs to do their duty with regularity, purify the blood, and secure that inestimable blessing, sound health. There is nothing like Radway's Regulating Pills for the cure of all disorders of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and bladder, for sore throat, dyspepsia, headache, costiveness, indigestion, bilious fever, piles and all derangements of the internal viscera. For 25 cents a box you have in them pills a panacea for some of the most painful and dangerous of all diseases. Sold by Druggists.

N. B.—Dr. Radway's pills are elegantly coated with gum, are free from taste or smell, and peculiarly adapted for the use of those who are averse to taking pills. A child can swallow them with ease; they are mild, soothing and healing in their operation, they purge disease then, agility from the system. Every family should keep them in the house. au7-2wdaw
