OFFICE SUPERINTENDENT

Public Education, District Eastern Virginia, Fort Monroe, Va., Sept. 10, 1888.

DEAR SIR-

I am prevented from visiting Baltimore as I have been called to the city...

DEAR SIR-

I have from the first sympathized deeply in the objects of your society...

DEAR SIR-

Perhaps in no part of the South has there been more general deprivation...

DEAR SIR-

This is not because this has been a succession of battle fields merely...

DEAR SIR-

After an absence of four years, years of unparalleled lack and suffering...

DEAR SIR-

They need every thing, especially bedding, clothing, food, and implements...

DEAR SIR-

Very truly yours, CHAS. A. RAYMOND.
