THE SONGS OF OLD.

The songs of old! How deep a spell
Lies in the old familiar words,
Once sung by those we loved so well,
In other days, in happier years;
Visions of hope long passed away,
Come o'er the heart so lone and cold,
And Memory asks, oh, where are they
Who sweetly sang the songs of old?

Where are they? Some in silence sleep
Beneath the mournful yew tree's gloom;
Others within the boundless deep
Have early found an ocean tomb;
Dim are the eyes that gently shone,
The once warm heart lies still and cold,
And hushed for aye, forever gone,
The voice that sung the songs of old.

Where are they? On some foreign strand
For many a weary day they roam;
Cheerless they tread the Stranger's land,
From friends afar, afar from home.
Do they not long to join once more
The joyous dance, the social throng,
And mingle, as in days of yore,
Their voices in the olden song?

Fondly the heart still loves to linger
Amid the ruins of the past,
Tracing, with memory's busy finger,
Visions too beautiful to last;
Bringing to memory's eye again
The long lost friends, the cherished ones,
Waking the past with sense and strain,
Some well-remembered olden song.

ST. DOMINGO.

TERMS ON WHICH THE SPANIARDS SURRENDERED THE ISLAND.

[From the Kingston (Ja.) Journal, Sept. 2.]

The following are the terms of the Convention concluded between the Spanish and Dominican generals prior to the evacuation of the country by the Spanish troops:

First—The Dominican government recognizes that it is solely to an act of magnanimity on the part of the Spanish people that they will owe the independence they are about to enjoy.

Second—The Dominicans who, faithful to Spain may wish to remain in St. Domingo, will live under the protection of the laws, their persons and interests being respected; and those who may leave the country will have the option of returning thereto when they wish, and will enjoy the same advantages during their absence.

Third—The government of the republic will pay to Spain an indemnity for the expenses of the war, the amount of which will be subsequently determined by treaty.

Fourth—The Dominican government solemnly engages not to alienate all or any of their territory without the consent and authorization of Spain.

Fifth—Upon the abandonment of the island by Spain the sick of the Spanish army now in hospital will remain until their restauration to health, being tended and assisted with care, their expense to be paid by an officer of the Spanish military administration, who will remain on the island for that purpose.

DEATH OF THE MANIAC PRIEST HAMILL.

The maniac Roman Catholic clergyman of Newburyport, Massachusetts, who cut his throat twice, on Wednesday morning last, near Norwalk, Connecticut, on board the Boston mail train for this city, at the same time fighting desperately with persons who sought to secure him, died yesterday afternoon at Bellevue Hospital. The facts of this extraordinary case have been fully reported. The physicians believed it just possible he might recover, though the course they were compelled to adopt to enable him to breathe naturally was by covering his windpipe at the point where he had not only severed it, but had made upper and lower cuts, entirely destroying the cartilage of the "Adam's apple." The cause of death was understood to be inflammation and extreme loss of blood.

It appears that before the departure of the priest from Newburyport he made preparations for suicide. He informed his attendants that he had arranged his pecuniary affairs, and that everything was settled. The amount of money he had with him is reported at about one hundred dollars, and he had, besides, four large trunks.

No additional facts in regard to the impelling cause of the suicide have come to light. It will be remembered that Hamill wrote he had endeavored to kill himself in pursuance of his philosophy, but no explanation of the curious statement was given if any were possible. A requiem mass was said to-day at St. Stephen's Church for the repose of the soul of Hamill.—N. Y. Post, 16th.

A GERMAN POLAR EXPEDITION.

It has already been stated that Dr. Petermann, the well known geographer, offers a premium of from one hundred and fifty to three hundred pounds to any German mariner who will explore the currents of the sea between Spitsbergen and Nova Zembla in the course of the year. From these observations is to be devised a plan for a Polar expedition, which it is hoped will soon leave some German port. Dr. Petermann asserts that as part of the sea indicated is under the influence of the Gulf Stream, it will be much easier to penetrate in those quarters towards the Pole than by any of the usual routes. He seems also to hope that the quantity of fossil ivory to be collected on the way will defray part of the costs of the expedition.

The latest English papers announce that a steamer of two hundred tons has been chartered in London for the new Arctic voyage of exploration, which, according to Dr. Petermann's proposal, is to precede an expedition upon a large scale. The steamer was to sail for Hammerfest, where it was hoped to pick up a crew experienced in Arctic navigation. This done, the expedition will proceed to the eastern coast of Spitsbergen, possibly also to Gillis Land, from which point the actual object of exploration will be entered upon This is to ascertain, by careful examination of the seas between Spitsbergen and Nova Zembla, whether Dr. Petermann's conjectures as to the direction of the Gulf stream are correct. The funds for the exploration have been partly raised by subscription among the Senate citizens of Hamburg, and it is believed that the amount still wanted will soon be subscribed by merchants in Hamburg and Bremen. The exploration party will be placed under the command of Captain Hagemann, of Hamburg

GOV. BROWNLOW ON RASH WOMEN.—Gov. Brownlow writes as follows in the Knoxville Whig:

"For in the commencement of the rebellion until now, the devil and the women of the South have been the ablest allies the cause of treason had in the field. The influence of the women, backed up by the satanic majority, filled the ranks of the rebel armies, and gave ardor and endurance to the ten pecked men that entered the service. Southern women were petted and the rebel Congress to enact the law of conscription, in order to force all to the service. Through the influence which women had, thousands were forced into the field, and thence to their graves, who never would have left home. Playing into the hands of the devil, by thus filling his ranks, they had his approval all the time. Wives gave up their husbands, sisters their brothers, and mothers their sons—willing, nay, anxious to immolate their lives to the Moloch of war.—The women were willing to wear homespun; ready to dispense with the luxuries of table or toilet; ready to fling all their jewelry into the Confederate crucible; ready to anoint themselves for the embrace of the devil and the Confederacy."

There is a woman in Charlestown, N. H., who has a large collection of tame toads in her yard. They know their mistress, follow her about, and hop into her lap to be fed, and at the word of command range themselves in a perfect circle about her feet.

SERIOUS RIOT AT CHATTANOOGA—ATTACK ON A COLORED CAMP BY WHITE SOLDIERS.

[From the Chattanooga Gazette.]

On Tuesday afternoon, a burying party from the 3d Missouri cavalry came into town, with orders to inter the body of Sergeant Knoblauch, of that regiment, who had died that morning from the effects of a wound received by him while endeavoring to escape from a colored guard. After executing the order they returned across the river about dark. When the party arrived at the other side of the river, some of the soldiers exclaimed that they intended to revenge Knoblauch's death on the negroes in the contraband camp, which is just across the river and to the left of the military bridge.

The party who had thus expressed their intentions, drew their sabres and dashed into the camp, composed of unarmed and defenceless men, women and children.—One old man was severely cut on the arm, nearly severing it. Another man was cut on the head, a third dangerously in the thigh, and a child sabred. A boy six years old was fired at, but the ball not striking him, he started to run, when the man who had shot at him snapped his pistol several times at the boy, who fortunately escaped. It is said that the officers made no attempt to stop the bloodshed.—The soldiers then returned to their own camp.

The military authorities in the city having notice of this outrage, immediately despatched a strong detachment of soldiers to the vicinity of the contraband camp to prevent further disorder, it being known that the cavalrymen had threatened to burn the camp.

THE MANUFACTURE OF WHISKY IN SOUTH CAROLINA AND GEORGIA.

Major General Saxton, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in South Carolina and Georgia, on the 28th ult., issued an order, which says:

It is understood that numerous distilleries are being established within the limits of this Department, for the purpose of manufacturing whisky from corn, and that the owners thereof are intending to purchase corn at low rates from the freedmen for this purpose. In a time like the present, when starvation and famine threaten the country, when thousands are without food, or are being fed by Government bounty, no such waste of food should be tolerated. All agents of this bureau will take measures to prevent, as much as may be in their power, and to discourage in every way, the freedmen from selling their corn to those who will use it in the manufacture of whisky. Freedmen, particularly those who have families, should not sell their corn; they will need it all for food before another harvest.

In cases where freedmen have cultivated lands upon shares, each crop must be divided at the time it is gathered between the freedman who cultivated it and the owners of the land, according to the terms of the contract or agreement.

It is the duty of all agents connected with this bureau to see that fair and liberal contracts are made, remembering that "the laborer is worthy of his hire," and that both parties carry out their agreement in good faith. The best arrangements that can be made for all parties is the cultivation of the land upon shares—the owner of the land taking one half of the crop and the cultivator the other half. The freedmen will be allowed to use a portion of the store houses on the place for storing their portion of the crop.

THE DISCOVERIES OF COPPER DEPOSITS IN MARYLAND.—Hon. Joseph Wilson, the Acting Commissioner of the General Land Office, has been shown a valuable piece of copper ore, weighing fourteen pounds. This specimen was extracted from the farm of Mr. John Eyler, Jr., in Hanver's District, Maryland, one and a half miles from Sabillasville. It is here that rich deposits of red oxyde and metallic copper are found, unlike the black oxyde of Liberty, of New London, the malachite of Finkaburg, or the sulphuret of the Catoctin Mountains, yet resembling in kind and its associations, the virgin copper of Lake Superior.

Heretofore the determination of the principal deposits of copper ore in Maryland have never been fully made, or, if known, their comparative isolation, until within a few years, and the want of enterprise and means, have left all undisturbed. They will now doubtless receive development and exposure by the intelligence and energy of those who have heretofore sought occupation for their capital in the distant and undesirable regions of Colorado, Nevada, Idaho, and Montana.

The Western Maryland Railroad will be instrumental in developing one of the most extensive, exhaustless, and wealthy copper regions in the East. It traverses the most valuable sections and furnishes a direct outlet for its ores.

Dr. Henri Erni, chief chemist for the Department of Agriculture, has prepared a report of his examinations of the discoveries, which will be published soon.—Washington Chronicle.

FATAL AFFRAY IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 15—About 6 o'clock this morning an affray occurred in the liquor store of Mr Kehoe, No 29 Counties Slip, resulting in the death of a canal boat captain, named Frank Billager. It appears that the deceased and two companions entered the porter house at the hour above stated, and soon became involved in a quarrel with the proprietor, who ordered them out, but they refused to leave. Kehoe then undertook to put them out, and while doing so, Billager threatened to cut Kehoe with a bowie-knife. Kehoe then drew a six barreled pistol and fired at Billager; the ball entered the left side of the head and lodged in the brain. Death ensued in a few minutes. The Coroner was notified to hold an inquest Kehoe went to the station house and surrendered himself. He acknowledged he had committed the murder, but said he had acted in self defence. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts above stated—Kehoe was committed to the Tombs. He is thirty two years of age, a native of Ireland. The deceased was thirty-five years of age, and a French Canadian. He was a quarrelsome and vindictive man.

CABLE COMPILATION.—A singular work is about to be published—a collection of the very best passages of all the very best writers of France of the last half century. It is to be called the Tresor Litteraire, and is to be issued in seven tomes, which are to be splendidly printed. It has been compiled by a committee of the Societe des Gens des Lettres, and the preformation of it has occupied not fewer than ten years. The greater part of the authors quoted are still living, a fact which proves the terrible literary sterility of the early part of the century, when Bonaparte was master of France, and when horrid wars desolated Frenchmen by the thousand.—London paper.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—A brutal Irishman, evidently under the influence of liquor, or some other malign spirit, committed a horrible murder in Roanoke square yesterday.—It seems that while the fellow was sitting in the doorway of the Roanoke House a Miss Quinn, (who happened along, playfully attempted to amuse herself by tieging. Her voice grating harshly on the drunkard's ear, caused the fellow to rise from his seat and with a powerful blow put an end to her existence. The affair has created a great sensation. The murderer had not been arrested at last accounts.—Norfolk Old Dominion, 16th.

PARDONS GRANTED.—R. Hutson, Esq., attorney for Thos. J. Vickers, agent for the company, sold on Tuesday last the Jacob Mantin estate, in Broad Neck. Purchased by D. A. Benjamin, of Cowlertown, for $6,000. Major Richard Smyth has bought of Wm. Register the dwelling house on High street in this town, now occupied by Capt. Jas. Grates. Price $1,600.—Capt. Simon Hicks has bought of Mrs. Dr. Latham forty seven acres of land adjoining his farm near this town, for $42 per acre.—Kent News.

HORSE THIEVES.—On Tuesday, the 12th instant, Messrs. George Isaac and John Baldwin, two individuals arrested on Mrs. Hughes' place. On being taken before the magistrate, they gave their names as Robert Nelson and Wm. H. Smith, of Washington, and the account they gave of themselves was so confused and contradictory that they were committed to jail. They had a fine pair of horses in their possession when arrested.—Howard Co., Record.

At Elmira, N. Y., lately, an indignant husband applied to a justice of the peace for a warrant against a Baptist clergyman, whose offices was that he baptised the complainant's wife without his knowledge.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—Major General Winfield Scott Hancock, whose name fame first trumpeted in the disastrous peninsular campaign of McClellan, and whom all the world has since learned to know as the leader of the Second and Fifth Corps, before whose invincible veterans and matchless combinations the choice desperadoes of Lee surged in vain on the glorious field of Gettysburg, July 21, 1863, yesterday passed through our city on his way to his home, at Norristown. Some of our citizens were aware of his presence. His wore no marks of rank about him, being clad in a suit of linen But passing soldiers recognized their chief, and saluted, a la militaire, the tall gentleman plainly dressed in linen, and the tall man returned the formal salutation, as if he were accustomed to it, to the mental perturbation of staid pedestrians who did not recognize the hero of Gettysburg, Spottsylvania and the South side Railroad, in the plain, unpretending citizen who trudged up Chesnut street, without staff officer, orderly or guard.—Phila. Inquirer.

DR. BRADSHAW'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL—

THE GREAT INVIGORANT,
THE GREAT NERVINE.

NERVOUSNESS AND WEAKNESS

And all diseases arising from excesses and overexertion whether physical or mental.

To persons of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicating that energy which is necessary to the enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either sex or any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, enervated youth, the overworn man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general debility or from weakness, will find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator.

A STIMULANT THAT ENTAILS NO REACTION.

Its force is never expended, as is the case with opium or alcoholic preparations, and all other excitants. The effect of these is brief, and it may well be said of him who takes them, "the last state of the man is worse than the first." But the ELIXIR is an exhilarant without a single drawback—safe in its operation, perpetual in its happy influence upon the nerves, the mind, and the entire organization. In cases of nervousness, headache, loss of memory, hypochondriasis dyspepsia, general prostration, irritability, nervousness, inability to sleep, liver complaint, and all diseases incident to females, hysterics, monomania, vague terrors, palpitation of the heart, barrenness, constipations, &c., &c., from whatever cause arising, it is, if there is any reliance to be placed on human testimony, absolutely infallible.

It is the only infallible remedy, yet discovered for Nervous Head and Mind Complaints. It is the sovereign antidote for the bane, and never before found, the only natural agent that can "administer to a mind diseased." In cases of Neuralgia, Headache, Vertigo, pain in the Nerves of the Face, and all the various trains of Nervous Affections, it will produce a cure in an astonishing short period of time; and it will also remove Depression, Excitement, a Tendency to Blush, Bashfulness, Blushing, Fulness of or Soreness, Incapacity for Study or Business, Loss of Memory, Confusion, Giddiness, Blood to the Head, Melancholy, Mental Debility, Hysterics, Leucorrhœa, Wakefulness, Thoughts of Self-Destruction, Fear of Insanity, &c. It will increase and restore the appetite, strengthen the emaciated, renew the health of those who have destroyed it, impart continual cheerfulness and equanimity of spirits, and prolong life.
