Description of Property and Eligibility Determination: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo)

The B.K. Miller Super Liquors property is located at the northeast corner of Old Branch Ave/Brandywine Road(MD 233) in the Clinton area of southern Prince George's County. Clinton was established in 1854, but was originally called Surrattsville when John Surratt was appointed as the area's postmaster. The name was changed to Robeystown, and finally to Clinton in 1878.

Originally built in the 1950's by Blossie Keubeth Miller who operated a General Store on this site since 1913, this brick 2-story commercial property is still owned by the Miller Family. A brick warehouse located behind the building was built in the 1920's by B. K. Miller according to the current owner, Blaze Miller. The liquor/general store occupies the first floor and the remainder of the building serves as office/storage space.

The B.K. Miller Super Liquors property represents an example of the Art Moderne style that was prevalent for commercial buildings during the 1930-1950 period. Although the façade and side first floor windows appear to have been altered, the original metal casement windows are still intact on the second floor. The B. K. Miller building still retains sufficient integrity to be eligible for the National Register of Historic Places under criteria C.
