FIVE POUNDS REWARD,

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Frederick county, near Bladensburg, a likely mulatto fellow, named James Malton. He is about 5 feet nine or 10 inches high, has short black hair curled behind, and is a straight well made active fellow, of about twenty-seven years of age. He understands a little of the blacksmith's business, and is a tolerable good waggoner; he had on, when he went away, a brown cloth coat, an old double breasted jacket, a pair of white drizzling or suetian breeches, a white shirt, a new hat with a white band and loop, and a pair of plated buckles in his shoes. As he is a sensible, artful fellow, it is probable he may have a forged pass, or a discharged indenture from some of his acquaintances, and may endeavour to pass as a freeman. Whoever takes up the said slave, and secures him in any jail to as I may get him again, shall have the above reward, and the travelling expenses, paid by WALTER BEALL.
