

EXECUTIVE PROCEEDINGS.

---

THURSDAY, January 3d, 1839.

Present the same Senators as in Legislative session.

The President laid before the Senate the following message from His Excellency Governor Veazey, which had been received by the hands of Joseph H. Nicholson, Secretary of State:

To the Senate of Maryland,

I herewith submit for the consideration of the Senate, a list of the appointments which I have made since the adjournment of the Senate on the 30th of March last, in virtue of the power vested in me by the constitution. And I now nominate the several persons therein mentioned, (or so many of them as it may be thought necessary to recommission,) to be appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to the offices respectively attached to their names.

John C. Groome having resigned the office of Secretary of State, to which he had been appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, on the 3d day of April last, I appointed John H. Culbreth to fill the vacancy. Mr. Culbreth also resigned on the 6th day of October last; and on the 8th day of the same month, I appointed Joseph H. Nicholson, Secretary of State. Mr. Nicholson will continue to perform the duties of that office until the expiration of the term for which I was elected. It is drawing so nearly to a close, that I deem it unnecessary to present the nomination of Mr. Nicholson for the confirmation of the Senate. My desire and his being, in no wise to interfere with or embarrass the proceedings of the gentleman who has been elected to succeed me in office, and the Senate, in regard to the appointment of a Secretary of State for the year 1839.

I nominate James Renwick, of Columbia College, New York, to be appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, one of the persons to estimate and fix, on oath, the value of the lands and
